

COSMIC DESTINIES - BRIDGING HEAVEN & EARTH

Knowledge of an ancient Earth Tribe known as the Dragon Tree Lineage has been coming forth through the Akash. People in this lineage had three co-current incarnations: a Human, a Tree, and a Dragon. These tremendous Dragon Trees once existed on the Earth, connected by an energetic network all around the planet, and people of this lineage were their Guardians. We can still see the remnants of these ancient trees in the form of large geological rock formations. These trees were the bridge between the Heavens, the Earth, and the deep inner Earth realms.

In this Year of the Dragon, not only will the Dragon Lines be activated in the Earth grid, but these ancient Trees of Life have also been sounding for their return to the Earth plane. What has recently come through the Akash is a very important mission for all who feel called to Costa Rica in November for Judy & Valentina's special retreat gathering.

Last year's Starseed Awakening Retreat brought forth & anchored in Coded Light Geometry into the the floor of the ceremonial Maloka space. This energetic geometry was installed to assist all who journey in the space to accelerate their healing, integration, and their ability to go deeper with the Sacred Medicine in graceful alignment with each individual.

It has been revealed that this Light Geometry will be upgraded by the retreat participants to create the energetic architecture needed to anchor in a Dragon Tree which will further activate the Galactic Portal in Costa Rica, as well as to catalyze the Earth Grid Network for future Dragon Trees to be established around the planet. This is important for the future realization of these trees returning in physical form, and as a continuation of Valentina's important work with the Planetary Akash. The moment is potent – we will not have this opportunity again for a very long time.

If you have been hearing the calls of the Dragons, the whispers of the Trees, or the songs of Pachamama – this is your opportunity to step into a safe and sacred container for personal and planetary healing.

This is more than an invitation. It's a call to step into your Cosmic Destiny, to embrace your Multidimensional Self, and to undergo transformation on an unprecedented scale. The Costa Rica Starseed Dragon Awakening Retreat is your gateway to a new reality, where healing, awakening and transformation are not just possible—they're inevitable.
